Free english classes near me for adults

Adults work on their English speaking, reading, and writing skills at The New York Public Library The New York Public Library helps adult students improve their communication skills in English. We offer two types of English classes, available at more than 40 libraries in the Bronx, Manhattan, and Staten Island. These are series-based classes, held year-round in 10-week cycles. Most classes meet two days each week, for two hours each day. Select classes meet on Saturday mornings for four hours. Classes are for beginner, intermediate, and advanced level students. To register for classes, click here. ESOL Classes: for non-native speakers to improve listening, speaking, reading, and writing. Adult Basic Education Classes: for students who already speak English but want to improve their reading and writing. English for Work Classes: for intermediate and Advanced speakers looking for work or already employed and want a better job. Information Sessions At the Information Session, you will make an appointment to register for classes. Please note: Classes are open to adults. Testing is required for placement. Documentation is not required. Space is limited. Children are not allowed at registration. View our schedule of upcoming Information Sessions. For the most current information available regarding these classes, please ask at your local branch. As a student in NYPL's free ESOL classes, Raul Flores is proud to say that he has gone from knowing just a few basic English phrases, to being able to converse comfortably with other English speakers. Watch him tell his story. Informal English Conversation Classes: We Speak NYC Discover our full calendar of classes! Some classes are IN PERSON at the Stavros Niarchos Foundation Library. Major support for the Library's adult literacy programs is provided by the City of New York; Lynne and Richard Pasculano; Arthur W. Koenig; The JPB Foundation; the Workforce Innovation and Opportunity Act, Title II funding administered through the New York State Education Department; Stavros Niarchos Foundation; and Lisa and Jeff Blau. Additional support provided by the New York State Coordinated Outreach Services Program; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Baker Family Foundation; The Earl Bailey Trust; New York State Library's Adult Literacy Library Services grant program; and an anonymous donor. Jesus Duran has been teaching since he got out of high school. He began as a reading tutor in schools throughout Compton and East Los Angeles. A few years later, he transitioned to working as a GED teacher in the Wayside jails in Santa Clarita, California and a parolee education program in Van Nuys. He believes, "Everyone is entitled to a quality education. And even though education is expensive, the cost of not going to school is even greater." Jesus teaches ESL, GED subjects, drawing, painting, as well as computer basics and social media. He is currently writing and illustrating a graphic novel about his experiences at the US-Mexico border. Terridawn Hernandez is a cum laude graduate of California State University, Long Beach. She earned a Multiple Subject Clear CLAD teaching credential which has allowed her to teach the past 19 years in the reputable ABC Unified School District. She has taught at both the Elementary School level and Adult School (12 years). "It is a joy to teach students ranging in age from 3 years old to 83!" Christopher Satoru Kowalchuk but prefers to be called "Chris". He was born and raised in the Los Angeles area, but spent summers in the Japanese countryside as a child and also lived in Tokyo for 6 years as an adult. Because of these experiences, he knows firsthand the difficulties of living in a new country. Opening a bank account, talking to customer service on the phone, going to the doctor ... these were all very stressful situations! But by studying Japanese a lot in his free time, he was able to feel comfortable living in a foreign country. His goal as an ESL teacher is to help English Learners in the United States feel comfortable here. Please join him and fellow students in learning English so you can achieve your goals and feel good living in this country. Daniel Lipton, M.A.Ed., is the EL Civics Coordinator and an instructor in the ESL department. He has a Master's Degree in Education from Claremont Graduate University. He also has a California Adult Education Credential in ESL. He has taught at ABC Adult School since 2017. Prior to coming to ABC, he taught abroad in China and throughout Southern California. In his free time, he enjoys studying music and spending time with his family. Gregg Matthis has been teaching ESL at various community colleges since 2017. He started teaching at ABC in 2021. "I love teaching ESL because it is a fun and rewarding way to help people improve their lives and reach their goals." When he is not teaching, he is either reading, playing guitar, cycling or having fun with his family. Anita Muniz graduated from CSU Dominguez Hills in 2000 with a Bachelor's degree in Liberal Studies with a minor in Psychology. She also has a Designated Subjects credential. She taught elementary and middle school for three years before she devoted herself to adult education. She has taught ESL to adult students since 2000. Her favorite class to teach is Grammar. Anita loves spending time with her four children and exercising in her free time. Christine Oliveira is the ESL Department Chairperson and Teacher on Special Assignment (TOSA). She has taught ESL at ABC Adult School since 2002. She has a Designated Subjects Credential and an MA in TESL from CSULB. She enjoys helping teachers with resources and material. She has taught various levels, and one of her favorite classes to teach is Civics Ed. 500 Advanced. Christine loves learning about her students' backgrounds, cultures and goals. Marcela Perez has been an Adult Education teacher for 14 years. She earned her BA in Liberal Studies & Multi-Cultural Arts at CSULA. Her career began in K-12 education. She worked closely with parents and felt passionate about helping them gain confidence to be able to help their children succeed academically. Adult Education allows her to help her community of adult learners grow and thrive academically, personally and acquire the skills necessary to thrive in the workplace. At ABC, she strives to create a nurturing and fun environment for all students in our ESL, Civics and Conversation courses! James Rivera is an educator with 18 years experience. He loves teaching History, Architecture, Art History, Spanish, and ESL. He decided to teach adult school because he wants to help parents fulfill their passions and goals. He is all about family, friends, and enjoying the simple moments. His interests include hiking, boxing, traveling, art, and currently studying architecture and design. His future goal includes writing a book to help children become interested in architecture. Jean Rose has taught ESL at ABC Adult School since 1980 and has trained teachers throughout the state with the ESL Institute. She has a M. Ed and an MA in Linguistics. Jean has served as a resource instructor at ABC, helping the teachers meet the many and varied needs of their adult students. Her favorite class to teach is Current Events. She has been teaching Daily News and Weekly News classes for many years. David Savodra has a BA in Philosophy from Cal State Fullerton, a teaching credential, and a graduate TESOL Certificate from CSULB. He has taught at ABC Adult School since 2001. He loves teaching because he feels that he learns just as much from the students as they do from him. He particularly enjoys teaching the grammar skill classes. Rebecca Sim has been teaching ESL for over 10 years. She loves helping new students adjust to life in the United States, and she enjoys talking about grammar and pronunciation and new vocabulary words the same way other people like talking about sports. When she is not teaching, she likes to read, watch movies, learn different languages, and take slow walks in beautiful places, most often along the beach or in an art museum.She also loves drawing and painting. Someday she hopes to travel around the world and paint all the wonderful sights. Rita Tong loves teaching ESL because she enjoys meeting people from around the world and she loves English. Rita has a teaching credential and an MA in TESOL. Prior to coming to ABC Adult School, she taught at Biola University, Cal State University, Fullerton, and UC Irvine. Rita has also worked overseas teaching English at a church in Taiwan for a summer and at a medical college in China for a year. Rita enjoys teaching at ABC Adult School because the students are highly motivated, eager to learn, and very friendly.
